INDIA-MOROCCO BILATERAL RELATIONS

25 August 2020

1. POLITICAL

1.1 Introduction

Relations between India and Morocco go back to the 14th century when the famous traveler and writer from Tangier, Ibn Batuta travelled to India. In modern history, India was active in the UN supporting the Moroccan freedom movement and recognized Morocco on 20 June 1956 when it became independent. Diplomatic Missions were established in 1957. Over the years, India and Morocco have enjoyed cordial and friendly relations.

Desire to build an intensive interaction culminated in the first landmark visit of our Prime Minister to Morocco in February 1999 followed by the visit of Moroccan PM Youssoufi to India in February 2000. After ascending to the throne, King Mohammed VI chose India for his first visit to Asia in 2001. Relations have been further intensified since the meeting of King Mohammed VI with our Prime Minister on 29 October 2015, on the sidelines of the third India-Africa Forum Summit (IAFS-III) in New Delhi. It is reflected in 22 Ministerial visits since October 2015 and signing of more than 35 MoUs/Agreements in the areas such as counter-terrorism, cyber security, space, agriculture, vocational training, housing etc.
