INDIA-MOROCCO BILATERAL RELATIONS

September 30, 2022

1. POLITICAL

1.1 Introduction

Relations between India and Morocco go back to the 14th century when the famous traveller and writer from Tangier, Ibn Batuta, travelled to India. In modern history, India was active in the UN supporting the Moroccan freedom movement and recognised Morocco on 20 June 1956 immediately after its independence. Diplomatic relations were established in 1957. Over the years, India and Morocco have enjoyed cordial and friendly relations.

Desire to build an intensive interaction culminated in the first landmark visit of our Prime Minister Shri Atal Bihari Vajpayee to Morocco in February 1999 followed by the visit of Moroccan PM Mr. Abderrehman Youssoufi to India in February 2000. After ascending to the throne, King Mohammed VI chose India for his first visit to an Asian country in 2001. Relations have been further intensified since the meeting of King Mohammed VI with Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi on 29 October 2015 on the sidelines of the third India-Africa Forum Summit (IAFS-III) in New Delhi. It is reflected in around 25 Ministerial visits and interactions since October 2015 and signing of more than 40 MoUs/Agreements in the areas including counter-terrorism, cyber security, space, agriculture, vocational training etc.
