PRESS RELEASE

Indian Navy and Royal Moroccan Navy conduct Maritime Patrol Exercise

Indian Naval Ship, INS Tarkash undertook Maritime Patrol Exercise (MPX) with Royal Moroccan Naval Ship Hassan II on July 26, 2022, off Port Casablanca. During this Maritime Patrol Exercise that stretched over 7 hours, various advanced activities were conducted. The exercise apart from strengthening maritime ties between the two countries, provided an opportunity to both ships to better understand the operating procedures of each other thereby enhancing inter-operability between the two Navies.

2. INS Tarkash is a frigate of Indian Navy and is currently on overseas deployment to build Bridges of Friendship with friendly nations. India and Morocco enjoy cordial and friendly relations that have intensified and diversified in recent years in various areas of mutual interests, including defence cooperation.
